

ANNUAL CONFERENCE & FORESTRY EXPO

July 21-23, 2017 \ Jekyll Island Convention Center \ Jekyll Island, GA

Dear Georgia Forestry Association Annual Conference & Forestry Expo Attendee,

In addition to offering premiere education and opportunities to network with fellow members, we hope to provide a family-friendly Annual Conference. This year, we are excited to offer new on-site programs for spouses and children with the following events.

Spouse and Children Truth Be Told Art Party

Saturday, July 22 | 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

For spouses and children, we are offering a Truth Be Told painting class. Those who register for this event will end the morning with a beautiful finished masterpiece to take home! The cost for each design (16" x 20") is $40 per adult and $30 per child. For more information on the program, go to www.truthbetoldart.com.

Attendees can choose from the following canvas options:

- » Bird in Tree (example pictured on the right side of the page)
- » Camper with Frame

Adults may choose to paint their own design or work with their child to create a masterpiece. Children can also complete their own design. This class is scheduled for a maximum of 3 hours and includes:

1. A trained instructor, art lesson for rookie attendees, all supplies, snacks, and a DVD testimony of TBTA's heart, start and mission.
2. The adults and children will paint using step-by-step instructions for self-proclaimed non-artists.
3. The instructors will have scripture options available, if you wish to have a Bible verse on your artwork. The verses are formatted so you can have the artistic Truth Be Told font on your canvas throughout pre-designed templates.

Forest Kid's Dinner Program with Smokey Bear

Saturday, July 22 | 7:15 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.

While parents are enjoying the GFA live auction and dinner on Saturday evening, a Forest Kid's dinner program will be offered for children ages 5 to 13. Along with a child friendly meal, there will be a special presentation by Smokey Bear. After the program, there will be free time to play with interactive video gaming booths and participate in other activities. The event will include adult supervision. Cost for the event is $25 per child.

If your spouse or child is interested in participating in these programs, please be sure to register on the conference registration form. We look forward to you joining us at beautiful Jekyll Island!

Sincerely,

Kelley Atkinson
